Begin your journey in Chicago, the vibrant heart of the Midwest. Start your day exploring iconic landmarks like Millennium Park (don't miss Cloud Gate, aka "The Bean"), Navy Pier, and the Magnificent Mile for some upscale shopping. Enjoy a delicious Chicago-style deep-dish pizza for lunch - it's a must! In the afternoon, explore the lakefront: walk or bike along the scenic paths, visit the Museum of Science and Industry, or take an architectural boat tour for a unique perspective of the city's stunning skyline. As evening approaches, catch a breathtaking sunset over Lake Michigan - a perfect start to your circle tour.

Day 2: South Shore Drive & Indiana Dunes National Park

Today, we head south along the Indiana shoreline. Your drive will take you along the scenic South Shore Drive, offering stunning lake views. Make a stop in Michigan City, a charming town with a historic lighthouse and beautiful beaches. Your main destination for the day is Indiana Dunes National Park. This stunning national park boasts diverse ecosystems, from towering sand dunes to tranquil wetlands. Hike the dunes for panoramic lake views, explore the various trails, and enjoy the peace and quiet of nature. Consider a sunset stroll along the beach for a magical end to the day. Book your accommodation in a nearby town like Chesterton or Michigan City.

Day 3: Traverse City & the Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore

Prepare for a day of stunning natural beauty as you journey north into Michigan. Traverse City, nestled on the shores of Grand Traverse Bay, awaits. Known for its cherry orchards and vineyards, this picturesque city offers charming shops, art galleries, and delicious local cuisine. Spend some time exploring downtown, sampling some cherry wine, or visiting a local cherry farm. In the afternoon, head to Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore. This breathtaking park offers towering sand dunes, pristine beaches, and stunning views of Lake Michigan. Hike to the top of the dunes for unparalleled panoramic views, or explore the quieter beaches along the shoreline. Consider staying in Traverse City or a nearby town for convenient access to both the city and the national lakeshore.

Day 4: Petoskey & Mackinac City - History and Charm

Today's drive takes you along the northern shores of Lake Michigan, offering a change in scenery. Stop in Petoskey, a charming town known for its unique Petoskey stones (a fossilized coral found along the shoreline). Explore the shops, stroll along the waterfront, and maybe even try your luck at finding some Petoskey stones yourself. Your final destination for the day is Mackinac City, a historic town with a rich maritime past. Explore the historic downtown area, take a ferry to Mackinac Island (a car-free island with horse-drawn carriages), or simply relax and enjoy the stunning lake views. Consider staying overnight in Mackinac City to fully appreciate its charm and history.

Day 5: Return to Chicago – A Scenic Drive & Final Reflections

Your final day involves a scenic drive back to Chicago. This leg of the journey offers its own unique beauty, with picturesque towns and stunning lake vistas along the way. Depending on your time constraints, you might want to make a few stops along the way to explore some charming towns or enjoy a final lakeside walk. lake michigan circle tour in 5 days: On the Pond Ted Rulseh, 2003 In this love letter disguised as an anthology, author Ted Rulseh expresses his deep affinity with that singular body of water we call Lake Michigan. In a collection of 107 seasonally grouped essays that first appeared in his regular column in the Manitowoc Herald Times Reporter, his easy prose is at once rich and satisfyingly restrained. While he waxes nearly poetic in some passages, he never allows his writing to wallow in cheap sentimentality. Instead, he lets the life of the Lake, his hometown of Two Rivers, and adjoining lakeshore communities speak for itself, with quietly compelling results. On the Pond evokes a sense of place strong enough to take a rightful position alongside the works of the most celebrated American writers. With the eye of a writer, the soul of an outdoorsman, and the heart of a small-town boy. Ted Rulseh brings home the essence of life next to one of the most fabled of the Great Lakes, in all its many moods. From the sudden and unpredictable storms of autumn and shrieking winter gales to the tentative warmth of spring and summer's full glory, Lake Michigan is revealed as an alternately soothing and tempestuous -- but never dull -- neighbor. A pleasing chronicle of small-town life that manages to hang on amid the relentless march of time and technology, this book is also a keenly observant naturalist's journal. Let it take you away for a while to a place where gulls wheel above steel-gray waves, and dune walkers pull their jackets a little tighter. Book jacket.

lake michigan circle tour in 5 days: Death & Lighthouses on the Great Lakes: A History of Murder and Misfortune Dianna Higgs Stampfler, 2022-02 The author of Michigan's Haunted Lighthouses shares tales of disaster and misfortune on the Great Lakes. Losing one's life while tending to a Great Lakes lighthouse sadly wasn't such an unusual occurrence. Death by murder, suicide or other tragic causes--while rare--were not unheard of. Two keepers on Lake Superior's Grand Island disappeared one early summer day in 1908, their decomposed remains found weeks later. A newly hired and some say depressed keeper on Pilot Island in Wisconsin's Door County slit his own throat after a consultation with a local butcher about the location of the jugular vein. A smallpox outbreak in the late 1890s led to the tragic death of a lighthouse hired hand on South Bass Island in Lake Erie. Join author Dianna Stampfler as she uncovers the facts (and debunks some fiction) behind some of the Great Lakes' darkest lighthouse tales.
