Understanding the Triad Business Journal 40 Under 40

The Triad Business Journal's 40 Under 40 award isn't just another accolade; it's a powerful recognition of leadership, innovation, and community engagement. This annual celebration identifies forty individuals under the age of 40 who demonstrate exceptional promise and are already making a tangible difference in the Triad area (comprising Forsyth, Guilford, and Davidson counties in North Carolina). The selection process is rigorous, emphasizing not just professional achievement but also commitment to philanthropic endeavors and impactful community involvement. Being named to the list is a significant career milestone, opening doors to new opportunities and enhancing professional credibility.

Criteria for Nomination and Selection:

While the specific criteria may vary slightly from year to year, the core values remain consistent. Nominees are typically evaluated based on the following key areas:

Professional Achievement: Demonstrated success and significant contributions to their respective fields. This includes factors like career progression, innovation, leadership roles, and notable accomplishments.

Community Involvement: Active participation in community organizations, volunteer work, and philanthropic initiatives that benefit the Triad region. This shows a commitment beyond professional pursuits.

Leadership Qualities: Exhibiting strong leadership skills, including the ability to inspire, motivate, and guide others towards shared goals. This might include mentoring, team leadership, or community leadership roles.

Innovation and Vision: Demonstrating creativity, forward-thinking, and the ability to introduce new ideas and approaches to their field or community.

Past Winners and Their Impact:

Analyzing past "40 Under 40" lists reveals a fascinating tapestry of individuals across diverse sectors. From entrepreneurs leading groundbreaking startups to executives driving innovation in established companies, these individuals represent the vibrant energy of the Triad. By studying their backgrounds and accomplishments, aspiring nominees can gain valuable insights into the qualities and achievements that resonate with the selection committee. Furthermore, understanding their subsequent career trajectories provides a compelling case study of the long-term benefits of this recognition. Many past winners have gone on to achieve even greater success, further cementing the prestige of the award.

Tips for Potential Nominees:

Aspiring to join the ranks of the Triad Business Journal's 40 Under 40? Here are some key strategies to enhance your chances:

Document Your Achievements: Maintain meticulous records of your professional accomplishments, community involvement, and leadership roles. Quantify your contributions whenever possible, using data and metrics to showcase your impact.

Network Strategically: Build strong relationships with individuals who can support your nomination. This includes mentors, colleagues, community leaders, and those familiar with the selection process.

Highlight Your Community Impact: Don't underestimate the importance of your community involvement. Focus on initiatives where your contributions have made a measurable difference.

Craft a Compelling Nomination Package: Present your achievements in a clear, concise, and persuasive manner. Use strong storytelling to highlight your unique contributions and leadership qualities.

Stay Informed: Monitor the Triad Business Journal's website and social media channels for updates on the nomination process and deadlines.

It also answers complex questions on the structure of the dark triad and its measurement for practical applications. Learn about how people high in these characteristics can, on the one hand, experience individual career success and high work performance and, on other hand, present risks in the workplace with abusive and destructive leadership and counterproductive behavior. In addition, the author summarizes the legal and professional guidelines when assessing the dark personality characteristics of job applicants, examines the acceptance and social validity of such assessments, evaluates the available instruments, and makes recommendations for practical applications and further research. With the focus on practical applications, the book presents the development, quality, and application of a test designed for use in organizations to capture the dark triad in the workplace. Concrete recommendations are given on how to use the characteristics narcissism, Machiavellianism, and subclinical psychopathy in personnel selection. Researchers and practitioners interested in applying the dark triad in personnel work will find this book full of valuable information on how to undertake legally compliant processes and how to utilize the great potential these personality characteristics have in making decisions on aptitude.

triad business journal 40 under 40: We Carry Kevan Kevan Chandler, 2020-04-21 A story about friendships and commitment to one another so incredible you wouldn't believe it if it wasn't true. Kevan is just one of the guys. It's impossible to know him and not become a little more excited about life. He is an inspiring man permeated by joy, unafraid of sorrow, full of vitality and life! His sense of humor is infectious and so is his story. He grew up, he says, at belt-buckle level and stayed there until Kevan's beloved posse decided to leave his wheelchair at the Atlanta airport, board a plane for France, and have his friends carry him around Europe to accomplish their dream to see the world together! Kevan's beloved posse traveled to Paris, England, and Ireland where, in the climax of their adventure, they scale 600 feet up to the 1,400-year-old monastic fortress of Skellig Michael. In WE CARRY KEVAN the reader sits with Kevan, one head-level above everyone else for the first time in his life and enjoys camaraderie unlike anything most people ever experience. Along the way they encounter the curiosity and beauty of strangers, the human family disarmed by grace, and the constant love of God so rich and beautiful in the company of good friends. WE CARRY KEVAN displays the profound power of friendship and self-sacrifice.

triad business journal 40 under 40: Measuring and Modeling Persons and Situations Dustin Wood, Stephen J. Read, P.D. Harms, Andrew Slaughter, 2021-06-23 Measuring and Modeling Persons and Situations presents major innovations and contributions on the topic, promoting deeper integration, cross-pollination of ideas across diverse academic disciplines, and the facilitation of the development of practical applications such as matching people to jobs, understanding decision making, and predicting how a group of individuals will interact with one another. The book is organized around two overarching and interrelated themes, with the first focusing on assessing the person and the situation, covering methodological advances and techniques for inferring and measuring characteristics, and showing how they can be instantiated for measurement and predictive purposes. The book's second theme presents theoretical models, conceptualizing how factors of the person and situation can help us understand the psychological dynamics which underlie behavior, the psychological experience of fit or congruence with one's environment, and changes in personality traits over time. - Identifies technologies for measuring and predicting behavior - Infers behavior causes from personality and/or situational variables - Utilizes big data, machine learning and modeling to understand behavior - Includes mobile phone, social media and wearable tech usage analysis - Explores the stability of personality over time - Considers behavior analysis to treat maladaptive behavior triad business journal 40 under 40: Dark and Destructive Leadership Peter D. Harms, 2024-07-01 Destructive leadership has become an umbrella term for a range of toxic leader behaviors, intentional or unintentional, which are associated with negative outcomes for followers and/or organizations (Einarsen et al., 2007; Krasikova et al., 2013; Mitchell et al., 2023; Schyns & Schilling, 2013; Thoroughgood, 2021). By contrast, dark leadership concerns the psychological mindset of the leaders, not just what they do, but also why they do it (Hogan & Sherman, 2022). To this end, it assesses the traits, motives, abilities, and perceptual tendencies that lead to patterns of toxic leader behaviors that we label as being destructive (see Hogan et al., 2021). This book is intended to provide an in depth look at the topic of Dark and Destructive Leadership. Our author teams have provided insights into the origins and history of dark leadership, the personality and developmental antecedents associated with destructive leadership behaviors, the differential reaction of various types of followers to these toxic leadership styles, advances in the assessment and analysis of dark and destructive leadership styles, the differential display of these characteristics based on gender, and what we currently know about developmental and training interventions for leaders in danger of being derailed by these characteristics.

triad business journal 40 under 40: My New Roots Sarah Britton, 2015-03-31 Holistic nutritionist and highly-regarded blogger Sarah Britton presents a refreshing, straight-forward approach to balancing mind, body, and spirit through a diet made up of whole foods. Sarah Britton's approach to plant-based cuisine is about satisfaction--foods that satiate on a physical, emotional, and spiritual level. Based on her knowledge of nutrition and her love of cooking, Sarah Britton crafts recipes made from organic vegetables, fruits, whole grains, beans, lentils, nuts, and seeds. She explains how a diet based on whole foods allows the body to regulate itself, eliminating the need to count calories. My New Roots draws on the enormous appeal of Sarah Britton's blog, which strikes the perfect balance between healthy and delicious food. She is a whole food lover, a cook who makes simple accessible plant-based meals that are a pleasure to eat and a joy to make. This book takes its cues from the rhythms of the earth, showcasing 100 seasonal recipes. Sarah simmers thinly sliced celery root until it mimics pasta for Butternut Squash Lasagna, and whips up easy raw chocolate to make homemade chocolate-nut butter candy cups. Her recipes are not about sacrifice, deprivation, or labels--they are about enjoying delicious food that's also good for you.

Sims, PhD, Selene Yeager, 2016-07-05 "Dr. Sims realizes that female athletes are different than male athletes and you can't set your race schedule around your monthly cycle. ROAR will help every athlete understand what is happening to her body and what the best nutritional strategy is to perform at her very best."—Evie Stevens, Olympian, professional road cyclist, and current women's UCI Hour record holder Women are not small men. Stop eating and training like one. Because most nutrition products and training plans are designed for men, it's no wonder that so many female athletes struggle to reach their full potential. ROAR is a comprehensive, physiology-based nutrition and training guide specifically designed for active women. This book teaches you everything you need to know to adapt your nutrition, hydration, and training to your unique physiology so you can work with, rather than against, your female physiology. Exercise physiologist and nutrition scientist Stacy T. Sims, PhD, shows you how to be your own biohacker to achieve optimum athletic performance. Complete with goal-specific meal plans and nutrient-packed recipes to optimize body composition, ROAR contains personalized nutrition advice for all stages of training and recovery. Customizable meal plans and strengthening exercises come together in a comprehensive plan to build a rock-solid fitness foundation as you build lean muscle where you need it most, strengthen bone, and boost power and endurance. Because women's physiology changes over time, entire chapters are devoted to staying strong and active through pregnancy and menopause. No matter what your sport is—running, cycling, field sports, triathlons—this book will empower you with the nutrition and fitness knowledge you need to be in the healthiest, fittest, strongest shape of your life.

triad business journal 40 under 40: The Female Athlete Triad Catherine M. Gordon, Meryl S. LeBoff, 2014-10-28 This is the first book of its kind to focus solely on the female athlete triad - its origins, its recognition, and most importantly, its management. Since the symptoms themselves cover a range of medical specialties, chapters are written by experts in a number of relevant fields - sports medicine, orthopedics, endocrinology, and pediatrics - with an eye toward overall care of the young female athlete. Additionally, each chapter includes suggestions on how to educate and communicate with young athletes and their parents, as well as trainers and coaches, on how to manage the illness outside of the direct clinical setting. The female athlete triad is often seen in sports where low body weight is emphasized, such as gymnastics, figure skating, and running, though it can appear in any sport or activity. The interrelated symptoms - eating disorders, amenorrhea, and low bone mass - exist on a spectrum of severity and are serious and potentially life-threatening if not properly treated. Psychological problems, in addition to medical ones, are not uncommon. The Female Athlete Triad: A Clinical Guide discusses all of these areas for a well-rounded and in-depth approach to the phenomenon and will be a useful reference for any clinician working with female athletes across the lifespan.
